CATALOGUE OF FEDERAL AGENCY ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE/MANAGEMENT DOCUMENTS

PREFACE

To assist CFAs in meeting environmental compliance requirements, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Federal Facilities Enforcement Office (FFEO) has developed this "Catalogue of Federal Agency Environmental Compliance/Management Documents." This Catalogue is based on documents provided by the EPA, Department of Defense, Air Force, Army, Navy, Department of Energy, Department of Transportation, Postal Service, Department of Commerce, and the Tennessee Valley Authority. It is intended to be a resource that CFAs can use to identify and obtain existing information and guidance on environmental compliance and management topics.

EPA has produced numerous documents regarding pollution abatement, clean-up technology, and environmental management and compliance. These documents are distributed to the public and other Federal agencies in an effort to offer them technical assistance. In an effort to further assist CFAs, EPA, under advice of the CFA Task Force, determined that a list of documents and guidebooks developed by other Federal agencies who have compliance responsibilities would be helpful in developing the most effective strategies geared toward improving agency environmental programs. This effort is also intended to reduce duplication of effort among Federal agencies and foster a collegial approach toward environmental compliance.

The Catalogue contains over 210 Federal agency environmental compliance/management documents on topics ranging from compliance with specific environmental laws to development of policies and environmental management programs. Documents in the Catalogue can help CFAs better understand environmental compliance requirements and improve their environmental programs. Specific topics in the Catalogue include:

- Clean Air Act
- Clean Water Act
- Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act
- Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act
- Occupational Safety and Health Act
- Resource Conservation and Recovery Act
- Toxic Substances Control Act
- Hazardous Materials Management

- Environmental Audits and Self-Assessments
- Pollution Prevention/Waste Minimization
- Managing for Compliance and Development of Policy
- Environmental Remediation and Site Restoration
- On-Site Remediation Technologies
- Community Relations.

The Catalogue provides a description of each document, as well as the title, date published or revised, publisher and/or producer, document identification number, and document source. Additional information has been provided in the Catalogue appendix to help locate EPA publications relating to areas of interest that are not included in this document. These sources include the EPA Public Information Center (PIC) and the National Technical Information Service (NTIS).

FFEO intends to periodically revise the Catalogue. If your agency has produced any publications that you would like included in future versions, or if you have any suggestions for improving the Catalogue, please complete the suggestion form on the next page and mail to:

Richard Satterfield U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Federal Facilities Enforcement Office OE-2261 401 M Street, S.W. Washington, DC 20460

SUGGESTIONS

If you know of additional sources of information or specific reports that should be included in this Catalogue, or if you would like to forward suggestions for improving this document, please make a note on this page. This is a self-addressed mailer - just add postage, and drop it in the mail.

An Updated Assessment of Potential Cost Impacts of the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990 on U.S. Army Facilities (CONUS)

December 1990

Department of the Army, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

Report number CETHA-EC-CR-91019

Source: Commander, U.S. Army Environmental Center (previously Toxic and Hazardous Materials Agency), Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD 21010-5401. (410) 671-2556. Prepared by Martin G. Elliot of the Toxic and Hazardous Materials Agency.

Description:

This document provides detailed descriptions of each of the Titles of the 1990 Amendments. It presents a detailed cost analysis of the legislation and based on the conclusions, attempts to show what share of the cost will eventually have to be borne by the U.S. Army. The information is presented with the purpose of aiding a proactive approach to developing a plan for allocation of funds over the 1990s. This plan should help U.S. Army installations in the Continental United States (CONUS) to achieve and maintain compliance with the requirements of the 1990 Amendments.

U.S. Postal Service Radon Testing

Description:

This compendium is designed to help anyone interested in the Superfund program to identify and obtain the documents they need. It is the single most complete source of information produced by EPA on Superfund and includes entries from the Office of Emergency and Remedial Response, the Technology Innovation Office, the Office of Waste Programs Enforcement, the Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards, and the Office of Research and Development. Its indexes are organized by document title, subject, control number, agency number, and NTIS order number. The abstracts section contains brief summaries of document contents. The subject sections into which documents fall include CERCLA enforcement, RCRA enforcement, Federal facilities enforcement, outreach and training, public participation, remedial action, removal action, risk assessment and risk management, site assessment, and technology. For an updated list of publications, see "Superfund and Enforcement Program Publications Update."

This catalogue lists several hundred hazardous and solid waste documents released by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Solid Waste. It contains a select list of publications that are frequently requested. In the catalogue, documents are sorted by title, by document number, and by particular subject area. Each document entry contains a title, an annotation, the date the document was published, an order number, and the type of order form to use.

Description:

This handbook provides the policies and procedures that postal managers need to develop and implement hazardous waste management activities. It indicates how to identify hazardous waste, sets quantifiable goals for minimizing that waste, and provides guidance on using the waste reduction planning process to achieve waste minimization goals. This handbook also explains what users, generators, transporters, treaters, storers, and disposers of hazardous waste must do to comply with Federal, State, and postal regulations, including emergency response measures that must be taken at postal facilities.

Description:

This manual provides test procedures that may be used to evaluate those properties of a solid waste that determine whether the waste is a hazardous waste within the definition of Section 3001 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (PL 94-580). These methods are approved for obtaining data to satisfy the requirements of 40 CFR Part 261, Identification and Listing of Hazardous Waste. This manual encompasses methods for collecting representative samples of solid wastes and for determining the reactivity, corrosivity, ignitability, and composition of the waste and the mobility of toxic species present in the waste.

Commander's Guide to Environmental Management

May 1993

Department of the Army

Report Number ENAEC-EC-CR-93064

Source: U.S. Army Environmental Center, Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD 21010-5401. (410) 671-2556. Description:

This guide is designed to meet the environmental information needs of commanders, but is also useful for other staff officers and personnel who will likely find themselves confronted with one or more environmental issues. Intended as a "primer" on the environment, the guide is structured around questions commanders need answered and issues of which they need to be aware. The information provided offers a level of detail needed for basic knowledge of key environmental issues. This basic knowledge will better enable commanders to work with their environmental personnel in developing and maintaining the most effective environmental program possible.

U.S. Army Environmental Center Pollution Abatement and Installation Restoration Research and Development Program Activities FY 92

February 1993

Department of the Army

Report number CETHA-TS-CR-93035

Source: Julia Kilduff (410) 671-1563, Mark Hampton (410) 671-2054, Robert Bartell (410) 671-2054. U.S. Army Environmental Center, Research and Technology Branch, Technology Support Division, Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD 21010-5401. (410) 671-2556.

Description:

The purpose of this document is to enhance technology transfer by disseminating information relating to the current status and plans of the U.S. Army Environmental Center (USAEC). The report summarizes USAEC program activities in Defense Environmental Restoration Account Funded R&D Efforts. The programs summarized provide R&D support for: implementation or remedial actions at Department of Army installations; cost-effective reuse or recycling of waste, obsolete, or excess material; and cost-effective treatment of toxic and hazardous wastes resulting from Army industrial activities.

U.S. Army Installation Restoration Program Guidance and Procedure

December 1990. 1st Revision, March 1992

Department of the Army

Report number CETHA-IR-CR-90144

Source: Gerald Peters, U.S. Army Environmental Center (previously Toxic & Hazardous Materials Agency), Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD 21010-5401. (410) 671-2556.

Description:

This guidance was prepared to provide the installation commander and staff guidance on the implementation of the Installation Restoration Program process. It includes site identification, site nomination for funding, preparation of contract statements of work, and contract administration.

ON-SITE REMEDIATION TECHNOLOGIES

Accessing Federal Data Bases for Contaminated Site Clean-up Technologies, 2nd Edition

September 1993

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Federal Remediation Technologies Roundtable EPA/542/B-93/008; NTIS # PB94-144540

Source: National Technical Information Service (NTIS), 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, VA 22161. (703) 487-4650. Fax (703) 321-8547. Refer to Publication PB94-1444540.

Description:

This 46-page document is a reference tool that provides information on systems maintaining data on remedial technologies. The Federal Remediation Technologies Roundtable serves as an information exchange network for Federal agencies conducting applied research and development on innovative hazardous waste remediation techniques. Members of the Roundtable that developed this publication are the Environmental Protection Agency, the Department of Defense, the Department of Energy, and the Department of Interior.

Addendum One to Test Plan and Technical Protocol for a Field Treatability Test for Bioventing-Using Soil Gas Surveys to Determine Bioventing Feasibility and Natural Attenuation Potential

February 1994

U.S. Air Force - Air Force Center for Environmental Excellence, Environmental Restoration

Directorate

Document number not available

Source: AFCEE/EC, 8106 Chennault Road, Brooks AFB, TX 78235-5318. (210) 536-3907.

Description:

This 27-page addendum provides a working knowledge of how soil gas can be used as an indicator of subsurface hydrocarbon contamination and how bioventing feasibility can be determined using soil gas monitoring techniques. It expands on soil gas discussions in the "Test Plan and Technical Protocol for a Field Treatability Test for Bioventing," May 1992.

Bibliography of Technical Reports

November 24, 1992

Department of the Army (prepared by Arthur D. Little, Inc.)

Report number SFIM-AEC-TS-CR-93125. Reference 41313

Source: U.S. Army Environmental Center (previously Toxic Materials Agency), Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD 21010-5401. (410) 671-2556.

Description:

This bibliography provides a list of technical documents generated by the U.S. Army Toxic and Hazardous Materials Agency (USATHAMA) during its research, development, and implementation of technologies responding to the requirements of the Army's Installation Restoration and Environmental Compliance Programs. The document is separated into two main sections, one listing installation restoration documents and the other listing environmental compliance documents. These two sections are further subdivided into various programs.

Proceedings from the 17th Annual Environmental Research and Development Symposium and 3rd USACE Innovative Technology Transfer Workshop

June 1993

Department of the Army

Report number ENAEC-TS-CR-93108

Source: U.S. Army Environmental Center (USAEC), Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD 21010-5401. (410) 671-2556.

Description:

The 17th Annual Environmental Research and Development Symposium and 3rd USACE Innovative Technology Transfer workshop were held 22-24 June 1993. The symposium and workshop were conducted as a useful means of technology exchange for the Army's Environmental R&D Program. This annual event involves key personnel from all pertinent Federal agencies and provides a forum where users and developers are kept abreast of latest state-of-the-art technologies. This document includes 32 papers presented at the symposium, 10 papers presented at the workshop, and 6 additional papers that were accepted for publication.

Test Plan and Technical Protocol for a Field Treatability Test for Bioventing

May 1992

U.S. Air Force - Air Force Center for Environmental Excellence, Environmental Restoration

Directorate

NTIS# PB93-209146

Source: AFCEE/EC, 8106 Chennault Road, Brooks AFB, TX 78235-5318. (210) 536-3907. Also available from National Technical Information Service (NTIS), 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, VA 22161. (703) 487-4650. Fax (703) 321-8547.

Description:

This 92-page protocol introduces bioventing technology and describes the technical procedures used to set up a bioventing system for field evaluation. It also provides testing, equipment, measurements, and other relevant quantitative data. The protocol is also used as a regulatory test plan. This concept significantly reduces test plan preparation costs. See "Addendum One to Test Plan . . . " located under "On-Site Remediation Technologies" for additional information.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Commander's Guide to Public Involvement in the Army's Installation Restoration Program

November 1990

Department of the Army CETHA-PA-CR-90182

Source: M.E. Allingham, U.S. Army Environmental Center (previously Toxic & Hazardous Materials Agency), CETHA-PA, Aberdeen Proving Ground, MD 21010-5401. (410) 671-2556.

Description:

This guide offers the means by which Commanders can actively solicit productive citizen involvement in the Army's environmental restoration decisions and programs. It is intended to be a desk-top reference for Commanders and staff and offers specific information on the many public involvement issues associated with an installation restoration program.

Guidelines for Community Reuse Agencies for Closure Bases

APPENDIX ADDITIONAL SOURCES OF INFORMATION

This appendix provides additional sources of information that may be useful in locating U.S. Environmental Protection Agency publications relating to your area of interest. Copies of specific documents may be purchased directly from the National Technical Information Service (NTIS) (see below). EPA's Public Information Center (PIC) provides assistance in locating documents. The PIC can be contacted at the following address:

PIC U.S. Environmental Protection Agency PM-211B 401 M Street, S.W. Washington, DC 20460

Telephone: (202) 260-2080; (202) 260-7751

Fax: (202) 260-6257

EPA Publications Bibliography: Quarterly Abstract Bulletin

NTIS, an agency of the U.S. Department of Commerce, is the central resource for the public sale of all U.S. Governement-sponsored research, development, and engineering reports. Four times a year NTIS publishes EPA Publications Bibliography: Quarterly Abstract Bulletin, which contains citations with abstracts for reports generated by the EPA. The bibliography is broken down by title, subject (keyword), corporate or personal author, contract number, and accession/report number. It may be purchased from NTIS at a cost of $135 per year in the U.S., Canada, and Mexico. Please note that NTIS accepts both Visa and MasterCard. For more information contact NTIS at the following address:

NTIS U.S. Department of Commerce 5285 Port Royal Road Springfield, VA 22161

Telephone: (703) 487-4650; (800) 553-NTIS

Fax: (703) 321-8547

Telex: 89-9405 (domestic); 64617 (international)

NTIS Bibliographic Database

Information about EPA documents can also be located through the NTIS database. The database contains bibliographic records for Government-sponsored research, development, and engineering reports as well as other analyses prepared by government agencies, their contractors, or grantees. The NTIS Bibliographic Database is accessible online through Dialogue Information Services, Inc., and BRS Information Technologies. Contact your library for more information about accessing NTIS through these systems. Copies of the documents cited in the database may be purchased from NTIS at the above address. Please cite the exact title and the PB-series document number (e.g., PB89-123456) when ordering paper or microfiche copies from NTIS.

Online Library System

The Online Library System (OLS) is a computerized list of bibliographic citations of the holdings of the EPA library network. EPA provides this menu-driven, user-friendly system at no cost in order to support public access to environmental information. The only charges that will be incurred through the use of the system are telecommunications charges. OLS consists of several related databases that can be used to locate books, reports, and selected articles on a variety of topics. The material in OLS can be searched by numerous access points, such as title, author, and keyword. Information contained in the following databases is also listed in OLS:

National Catalogue Citations and summaries of 150,000 records on environmentally related topics encompassing biology, chemistry, ecology, and other basic sciences. It also contains EPA reports distributed through NTIS.

Hazardous Waste and Citations and summaries of key materials on Superfund hazardous waste and Superfund.

Clean Lakes Citations and summaries of information relating to lake management, protection, and restoration.

ACCESS EPA Over 300 entries for EPA and other public sector information sources such as hotlines, clearinghouses, etc.

Regional Files Selected items owned by the Regional Libraries.

OLS can be accessed through the INTERNET or through a modem by dialing into the system. For more information, contact the PIC for a copy of the OLS User's Guide and flyer.

ACCESS EPA - Revised 1993 Edition

ACCESS EPA provides publicly available information resources on a wide range of environmental topics. It contains detailed descriptions with complete contact information including both EPA and other public sector organization resources. In addition, ACCESS EPA includes information on EPA's National Environmental Supercomputing Center (new for 1993) and provides direction on how to obtain publicly accessible environmental information on topics such as:

- State Environmental Libraries
- Government Document Ordering Services
- Federal Depository Libraries.

For more information contact either NTIS (request NTIS #PB93-170041; price is $24) or the Government Printing Office (request #055-000-00437-4; price is $24) at the following address:
